reDiscover Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that collects clean, reusable creative materials from businesses and individuals and provides these materials at low cost to educators, artists, kids, families and community members while promoting creative reuse. The reDiscover Center, located at 12958 W Washington Bl, combines a retail shop offering an ever-changing variety of materials suitable for art, craft, and school use with a public workshop room, inspirational ideas and instruction. Every year reDiscover diverts tons of material from the waste stream. Allowing us to utilize you child's photos in our promotional activities will help us maintain and further our mission by illustrating to the public how much fun kids are having learning to use tools and with Creative Reuse.
